

Regional Missouri Bank Announces Potential New Business Coming to Brookfield

Regional Missouri Bank has entered an agreement to sell the lots at the intersection of South Main Street and Lockling Street in Brookfield. The opportunity to sell to someone who will bring a new business to town that will enhance the local tax base as well as provide jobs for adults and youth was appealing!

The community has embraced our downtown Brookfield location, and we are excited to continue our presence and growth there to support the vitality of the legacy business district. Regional Missouri Bank looks forward to seeing the positive impact this new development will have on the community and continuing to serve the citizens of Brookfield with dedication and pride.
